After several years of "bad weather luck", and even though we have been dealing with drainage and bunker maintenance for the past couple of weeks, the course was in great shape for our annual Nautilus Cup. Food and Beverage outdid themselves, and our incredible bag and cart crew and beverage cart ladies were outstanding. Not a drop of rain fell during golf nor during the outdoor social events. 65 teams competed, and plenty of "Plus 1's" attended the Cocktail Party and Champion's Dinner. We also had a putting contest that featured a keg of delicious beer donated by Disco Witch Brewing, with the winners being Todd McGohan and his guest, Kevin McGohan.

Of course, none of the events would have been possible without the great support offered by Dan Hackney and his Pro Shop staff.

There were eleven flights, with the following winners:

Amelia – Vince Tallant and Brian Nash

Cumberland – Jim McCann and Joel Millett

St Simons – Frank Jahn and Teo Sodeman

Jekyll – Keith Boylan and Duane Heineck

Tybee – Jim Blackburn and Michael Mineni

Sea Island – David Massengale and Keith Wilson

Big Talbot – Felix Lagasse and Brett Chambers

Little Talbot – Todd McGohan and Kevin McGohan

Crane – Ross Adolph and Bob Marion

Black Hammock – Mike Smith and James Duvall

Fort George – Al Saunders and Bill Drozda

Wild Card – Jason Reeves and Bill Greene

The shootout was narrowed down to two finalists, and after Ross Adolph rolled in a winning par putt, he and his partner Bob Marion became our champions, edging out the defending champion, Jim McCann and his partner, Joell Millett.

Below you will find links to a Youtube video and Slide Show with some of the highlights of the event. Special thanks to Geoff Tofield for putting these together.
